6. [redacted] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, visited the Agency for a briefing on a sensitive project followed by lunch and a visit to the Cuban missile exhibit. We also talked with him about several alternatives for tightening up the situation concerning disclosures of classified information. Braswell agreed with the position of Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, on this subject, favoring legislation to protect intelligence sources and methods rather than a proposal to establish a new category of "intelligence data."

8. [redacted] Ralph Hutto, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to advise that the Subcommittee's publication on "The Abuse of Psychiatry for Political Repression in the Soviet Union" was going to press at GPO today. [redacted] we suggested to the Library that the Agency ride the jacket (#84-417) for 100 copies of this publication. [redacted] handle the distribution.
